HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Diplomats and Official Society Returning From Summer Homes—Weddings and Engagements—Secretary and Mrs. Baker Entertain

THE NETHERLANDS MINISTER AND MME. CREMER are planning to return to Washington about October 15 from Manchester, Mass. where the legation has been established for the summer.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, who have spent the summer at Wardman Park Inn, will return to their apartment at the Willard Hotel on September 1, for the winter.

Mrs. Baker Entertains. The Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker entertained at luncheon yesterday at their residence on N Street.

Those present included the Assistant Secretary of War Benedict Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Chestnut, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart Bryan, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ryan, of New York; Krebs DuCharme, Mr. and Mrs. Morton DuCharme, and the Misses DuCharme, of Baltimore; and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert H. Baker, of Cleveland. Afterward the party witnessed the parade from the reviewing stand.

The Secretary of the Interior, Franklin K. Lane, was the guest of honor at a dinner given last evening at the Shoreham by H. H. Adams, of Texas.

Mrs. Houston, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, reached Washington this morning, coming from their summer home at Wood's Hole, Mass. She spent yesterday in New York. The children who came straight home from Wood's Hole, got in last night.

Mrs. William Phillips, wife of the Acting Secretary of State, has returned to her summer home at Beverly Farms, Massachusetts, after spending yesterday in Washington. She came on to witness the review of the First division.

Justice Day, who has spent the summer at Mackinac Island, Mich., will return to Washington Monday morning. He is accompanied by his wife and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Day. Mr. Rufus Day and children returned here early in the week from Mackinac.

Gen. John J. Pershing will visit Walter Reed Hospital tonight. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock he will hold a reception in the anteroom of the Secretary of War's office for the army officers on duty in Washington.

Brand Whitlock, American minister to Belgium, is at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York. Mr. Whitlock is soon to be our first ambassador to that plucky little country.

Newberry's Grandparents. Senator and Mrs. Truman H. Newberry have received word of the birth of a daughter on September 15 to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes Newberry, at Providence, R. I. She will be called Helen Barnes Newberry. Mrs. Newberry, who was Miss Elizabeth Goddard Kinney, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kinney.

Senator Davis Atkins was the week-end guest of Mrs. Joseph M. Steere and Miss M. Reynolds Allen at the Mount Washington Hotel, Bretton Woods, N. H., returning with them to New York.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Joseph P. Sanger have sold their house in Nineteenth street and have leased an apartment at 1305 Eighteenth street, of which they will take possession on their return from their summer home at New London, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte, who spent the summer at Newport, have gone to Hot Springs, Va., for the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore William Noyes have returned to their Washington home after spending the summer in the American national parks and the Canadian Rockies. They have with them for a visit Dr. and Mrs.

MME. NUIDA. —Photo by Harris & Ewing.

Who will accompany her husband, until recently third secretary of the Japanese embassy, to his new post at Bombay. Mr. and Mrs. Nuida are now on a brief holiday, but will return to Washington this week.

Ralph Walker McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thompson. Mrs. McDowell and Mrs. Thompson are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Noyes.

Mrs. Abraham Vanhook Zane has sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Evelyn Zane, to Capt. Arthur Hannum Delbert, on Wednesday, October 1, at 8 o'clock in St. Margaret's Church. The ceremony will be performed by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith.

As the bride's family is in mourning the reception which will follow will only be for members of the two families and of the bridal party.

Miss Zane will be given in marriage by her brother, Comdr. William Southgate Zane, U. S. N., and will have her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Southgate Zane, as matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Davette Ficklen, Miss Alice Carmody, Miss Adeline Thornton, of Washington, and Miss Alice Kemp, of Baltimore.

Jack Delbert will be best man for his brother and Captain Delbert will have as ushers another brother, Alan Delbert, Capt. A. Coulter Wells, Lieut. Comdr. Joel T. Boone, and Capt. Wilson L. Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Munn, Jr., are at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York for a visit.

Mrs. Gibson Fahnestock entertained guests at luncheon today at her summer home in Newport.

Miss Dorothy Mondell, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. F. W. Mondell, will be numbered among the buds of this season, although it is not yet decided whether she will make a formal debut. She is taking a course at George Washington University.

Countess Lazzio Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, arrived in New York from Italy yesterday with her four children, after having been warbound on her husband's estates in Hungary while the war lasted. She was met at the pier by her brother, Reginald Vanderbilt. Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and Mrs. Spencer Aldrich. It was said the countess would go at once to Newport.

Members of the Siamese legation staff, headed by Edward H. Loftus, charge d'affaires, and Mrs. Loftus, came to Washington yesterday from their summer legation at East Gloucester, Mass.

Returns From New York. Col. and Mrs. William Lewis Pitcher have returned to their apartment at 2400 Sixteenth street after spending several weeks in New York.

Miss Mary Sheridan, of Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Alden Spoor at Blythwood Farm, Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Beale R. Howard and their niece, Miss Kathryn Gwynn, will return to Washington on September 23 from Kennebunkport, Me., where they spent the summer months. They will reopen their house in Sixteenth street which was closed last winter when Mr. and Mrs. Howard had an apartment at the Lafayette Hotel.

J. Low Harriman, of Washington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont at Newport. Mr. Harriman was at Murray Bay, Canada, for the greater part of the summer.

The Duke and Duchess of Roxburghe sailed today from New York for England and the Azores. They have been in Newport most of the summer.

Huntress-Knapp Wedding. Miss Dorothy Rose Knapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Knapp, and Wesley Theodore Huntress were married last evening, the ceremony, which was one of the prettiest of the early autumn season, taking place in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, officiated.

The bridesmaids, Miss Muriel Keller, Miss Maxine Harris, Miss Ruth Hilliard, and Miss Anna Maher, entered the church by the side aisles, two on each side, and made their way down the center aisle, under an archway of green, to meet the bride. This unusual little ceremony was most effective, the attendants making an alluring picture in their rainbow-tinted frocks of tulle. The long court train was hung from the shoulders and her tulle veil was held in place with a coronet of pearls and clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses and orchids and her only ornament was the bridegroom's gift, a string of pearls.

Samuel J. Melick acted as best man, and the ushers were Edward Andrew Huntress, brother of the bridegroom; Charles Cook, Raymond Harsch and Harry Woodward.

At the reception, which followed in the home of the bride's parents, the bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, parents of the bride, and the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. William F. Huntress. The house was decorated with cut flowers, ferns and palms. Mrs. and Mrs. Huntress left Washington after the reception for a trip to Maine, the bride wearing a costume of brown satin, with brown fur coat and toque to match. They will be at home after October 15, at 2541 Thirteenth street northwest. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brown, from Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Algernon E. Burnaby, of London, who have been at Bar Harbor with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, are at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, New York, for a brief stay.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Moore Taylor, daughter of Mrs. James

Taylor, to Dr. Edward J. Copping took place last evening. The ceremony was performed in Trinity Episcopal Church at Takoma Park, D. C., by the Rev. C. M. Moore, and was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's mother, Miss Margaret C. Kroll was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Bertha Graf, Miss Catherine Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Meyers, and Miss Margaret Crittenden. Harry Copping was the best man for his brother, and the ushers were Murray Taylor, brother of the bride; Harris Barnum, and Dr. Ralph Morrison. Miss Doris Brew, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and Master Edward Bolan was the ring bearer.

The decorations in the church were white asters, palms and ferns, with streamers in rainbow hues carried by the flower girl. The bride, who was given in marriage by her older brother, James Taylor, wore a gown of white satin draped in silver lace. Her tulle veil was held with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower of bride roses and orange blossoms.

The maid of honor was in silver lace draped with tulle in rainbow shades with a picture hat of silver lace and tulle and she carried pink roses, snapdragons and delphiniums. The bridesmaids wore frocks of tulle trimmed with silver, with hats of silver trimmed with ribbons to match their gowns of blue, pink, green and lavender. The flower girl was in white net dress of ruffles and carried a basket of sweetheart roses and the ring bearer wore a suit of black velvet.

The decorations in the house were in autumn flowers in rainbow colors. Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, received with Dr. and Mrs. Copping, wearing a gown of black net trimmed with jets. Later in the evening Dr. and Mrs. Copping left the city for a wedding trip, the latter wearing a gown of brown with silver tone and a small brown velvet hat and brown fox fur. On their return they will be at home at Rutland Courts.

Weds Utah Man. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Miller, of 135 Rhode Island avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Katharine Chambers Miller, to George P. Golaher, of Tooele, Utah. Mr. and Mrs. Golaher were married on September 13 at Howard Park, Baltimore, the bride's brother, the Rev. Dayton Baird Miller, officiating. Mrs. Golaher will remain with her parents during the winter, while Mr. Golaher, who returned recently from overseas, will go to his home in Utah.

Col. and Mrs. H. F. Dalton have had as their guests the last few days Colonel Dalton's brother, Major A. T. Dalton, retired, and Mrs. Dalton, who are motoring from Indianapolis to Salem, Mass., where they will spend the next few weeks with relatives. Major Dalton has recently completed a detail as professor of military science at Indianapolis University.

Mrs. H. F. Dalton has returned to her apartment at the Cairo with her two sons from Spring Lake, N. J., where they have been spending the summer. Colonel Dalton is now on duty in the purchase, storage and traffic division, War Department.

Frank C. Littleton was host at luncheon for a party of five at the Cafe St. Marks yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Lennox have returned from Cliff Haven and other points on Lake Champlain, and are now at the Lennox Hotel in the Toronto for the fall and winter.

TAKE HAIR OUT NOT OFF THE SKIN

Hair is bound to grow out coarser and stiffer when merely removed from the surface of the skin. The only common-sense way to remove hair is to attack it under the skin. Dermicide, the original hair remover, does this by absorption. Only genuine Dermicide has a money-back guarantee in each package. At toilet counters in 50c, $1 and $2 sizes, or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price. FREE book mailed in plain wrapper on request. Dermicide, 129th St. and Park Ave., New York.
